Supplemental Notice for Consumers in California, Connecticut, Nevada, and Washington

Last Updated October 19, 2023

Why?	All companies need to collect and share consumers' personal information for everyday business purposes, marketing, and maintenance of the safety, security, and integrity of their websites and other assets, among other reasons. This Supplemental Notice provides the information required under state privacy laws in California, Connecticut, Nevada, and Washington and applies to both Taro's online and offline activities. For more information about how we collect, use, and share information through our websites and online services, please review our Privacy Policy .
What?	The types of personal information we collect and disclose depends on your relationship and interaction with Taro. Please review the Consumer Type below that applies to your relationship or interaction with Taro to learn about the categories of personal information we collect or have collected about you in the preceding 12 months. We also provide information concerning the categories of sources from which the personal information is/was collected, the purpose for collecting the personal information, and the categories of third parties to whom we disclose or have disclosed the personal information and the purposes for such disclosures. If you interact with Taro in more than one way, please review each Consumer Type below that applies to you in order to learn about the personal information we collect and how we use and share it in connection with each particular relationship. In addition to the purposes for collecting and sharing personal information described under each Consumer Type below, Taro collects and discloses any and all personal information (regardless of your relationship or interaction with us) as necessary or appropriate to: comply with laws and regulations; monitor, investigate potential breaches of, and enforce compliance with Taro policies and procedures and legal and regulatory requirements; comply with civil, criminal, judicial, or regulatory inquiries, investigations, subpoenas, or summons; and exercise or defend the legal rights of Taro and its employees, affiliates, customers, contractors, and agents.
Disclosure About Direct Marketing	California's "Shine The Light" law permits California residents to annually request and obtain information free of charge about what personal information is disclosed to other entities for their own direct marketing purposes in the preceding calendar year. Taro does not distribute your personal information to other entities for their own direct marketing purposes, except as provided for in the Privacy Policy .
